Marina Prior Shines at HOTA This Christmas

Leading lady of musical theatre, Marina Prior, is celebrating the festive season by performing her all-time favourite Christmas carols at HOTA, Home of the Arts, with a stellar quartet on December 18.

Mastering over thirty lead roles in a number of spectacular shows and over twenty features in Channel 9's iconic annual Carols by Candlelight concert, Marina has proven to be one of Australia's most loved stars to shine over the festive season.

HOTA CEO Criena Gehrke expressed that she has no doubt audiences will be captivated by Marina's matinee concert.

"Marina is such a talented performer and we are so fortunate to have her celebrate the festive season with us at HOTA this December," she said.

"Her performances are nothing short of amazing and we are looking forward to watching her light up the stage as we get into the Christmas spirit."

Marina has won numerous awards for her performances and was honoured with induction into Australia's 100 Entertainers of the Century in 2006.

Covering all of the favourite Christmas carol classics, as well as music she is known and loved for, Marina Prior's vocals and quartet accompaniment will light up HOTA's stage in this once-off performance.
